

(A monthly economic-political publ

New York, New York

September 1965

FOIAb3b

ALKOTÓ MAGYAR

Copyright © 1965, Geza Korda, New York, N.Y.

G. P. O. Box 174, New York, N. Y. 10001

Vol. 1. No. 1. September, 1965

1. évf. 1. sz. 1965. szeptember

CPYRGHT

A BRIDGE BETWEEN THE USA AND HUNGARY

Often we hear that because of the achievements of modern techniques the world is shrinking. The fact is that through the improved communication, transportation and so forth the barriers which kept peoples apart are now shrinking.

ALKOTÓ MAGYAR — abbreviated: AM — is designed as a bridgebuilder between the peoples of the U. S. A. and Hungary, based on competitive co-existence. There is a great need for such a bridge. Unfortunately the American people have not the right image about Hungarians. During the reign of the Habsburg robber barons, but especially since WW I, the West including the U. S. A. received information from Hungary's enemies. Previous Hungarian regimes neglected to improve that false image.

In 1956 the image of Hungarians as a nation had greatly improved but for many reasons it did not bring tangible results for better economic-political relations between the U. S. A. and Hungary. Now AM attempts to pave the way for such betterment through a positive way of thinking which should lead to constructive action, and also through informing the American public about facts not generally known. The aim of AM is threefold.

First, the old established so-called anti-communist emigration leaders politically have to be eliminated. Most of those "leaders" were and are opportunists of questionable past. At the beginning two groups must be exposed to the American public.

a) MHBK (Magyar Harcosok Bajtársi Szövetkezete). The leaders of MHBK include